

Session 17 Outline

Key Question: If Jesus was human, did He ever sin?

Biblical Truth: Jesus was completely human but also completely divine; Jesus lived a sinless life.

1. If Jesus came to be identified with us as humans, wouldn't that mean He identified with us in sinning?
2. Jesus faced temptation. (Matt. 4:1-11; Heb. 2:18; 4:15)
 - Jesus did not face the exact same temptations as you, but He experienced the same types of temptation.
 - Temptation and sin can be placed in three general categories: the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride in one's lifestyle. (1 John 2:15-16)
 - The depth of Jesus' temptation may have been greater than any we have ever experienced, because He was God. If Satan could get Jesus to sin, our salvation would not have been possible.
3. Jesus never sinned. (Heb. 4:15; 1 Pet. 2:22)
 - Jesus challenged the people to point out His sin. (John 8:46)
4. Although Jesus had no sin of His own, He took our sin upon Himself. (2 Cor. 5:21; 1 Pet. 2:22-24)

Session 17 Outline

Key Question: If Jesus was human, did He ever sin?

Biblical Truth: Jesus was completely human but also completely divine; Jesus lived a sinless life.

1. If Jesus came to be identified with us as humans, wouldn't that mean He identified with us in sinning?
2. Jesus faced temptation. (Matt. 4:1-11; Heb. 2:18; 4:15)
 - Jesus did not face the exact same temptations as you, but He experienced the same types of temptation.
 - Temptation and sin can be placed in three general categories: the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride in one's lifestyle. (1 John 2:15-16)
 - The depth of Jesus' temptation may have been greater than any we have ever experienced, because He was God. If Satan could get Jesus to sin, our salvation would not have been possible.
3. Jesus never sinned. (Heb. 4:15; 1 Pet. 2:22)
 - Jesus challenged the people to point out His sin. (John 8:46)
4. Although Jesus had no sin of His own, He took our sin upon Himself. (2 Cor. 5:21; 1 Pet. 2:22-24)

Session 17 Outline

Key Question: If Jesus was human, did He ever sin?

Biblical Truth: Jesus was completely human but also completely divine; Jesus lived a sinless life.

1. If Jesus came to be identified with us as humans, wouldn't that mean He identified with us in sinning?
2. Jesus faced temptation. (Matt. 4:1-11; Heb. 2:18; 4:15)
 - Jesus did not face the exact same temptations as you, but He experienced the same types of temptation.
 - Temptation and sin can be placed in three general categories: the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride in one's lifestyle. (1 John 2:15-16)
 - The depth of Jesus' temptation may have been greater than any we have ever experienced, because He was God. If Satan could get Jesus to sin, our salvation would not have been possible.
3. Jesus never sinned. (Heb. 4:15; 1 Pet. 2:22)
 - Jesus challenged the people to point out His sin. (John 8:46)
4. Although Jesus had no sin of His own, He took our sin upon Himself. (2 Cor. 5:21; 1 Pet. 2:22-24)